Literacy Programming—Report by Danielle Nutt. Six Flags Read to Succeed Program, PTA registered before 1/18, promote and advertise program starting week of 1/14 to 6th graders. Print parent letter and reading logs on 1/19, and add due date of 2/22. Program starts on 1/21. And students have a month to read books and keep a log.

Danielle will collect reading logs on 2/22 end of day. After this we will celebrate the kids who read at least 6 hours at RAT (Read a Thon) kick off. Read across America kicks off March 1. This will be open the whole school.

Meeting at 3/15, Friday, the kids and parents build personal sponsorship pages. Celebrate with pizza and a book swap

Meeting at 3/22, Friday, Official take home sheet, advertise during play to get sponsors.

Students who get $25 or more will be entered into the Balloon Pop Party, and the PTA will provide the prizes.

Classes should allocate 10, 15, 20 or 30 minute blocks of reading time every day for 2 weeks.

3/29 Friday to celebrate halfway point, pajama day After School movie night and book swap

4/4 is the Balloon Pop Party, For every $25 raised participant gets to pop one balloon. Six of them will have prizes in them, but the rest blank paper. Awards at end of night, also refreshments.

Sponsors go online to sponsor kids.

Student Council—Diana Schulz: they had a Halloween dance, Glow Party in February, looking for service project, maybe a literacy drive? (Last year was Pasta for Pennies) Maybe 8th grade could read to kids at public library story times?
