Dr. Clark Holmes

- Addressing events of yesterday and today
 - Receiving lots of questions
 - The incident today involved a separate threat and different individuals than yesterday
 - Take every report seriously and they are investigated
 - Work closely with HTPD
 - Need parents/community help because when students say things they do not realize the power of their words
 - No matter the intention, an investigation must occur
 - Parents/students please reach out to guidance counselors/administration: if you hear something, say something
 - Investigation unfounded
 - Announcement was made by Dr. Clark-Holmes informing students that the threat was unfounded, reminded students that if they see something to say something, and to choose their words carefully
 - VPs and guidance counselors called parents of each student on the specific bus involved
- Upcoming Activities
 - Halloween dance on 10/28/22 3-5pm hosted by Student Council

- Students may wear their costumes to school on 10/28/22 and Halloween, 10/31/22
